All In Together

Focus:

Almost every day we encounter situations where we need to stop and change our game or activity so that we can allow someone else to join in. Children need strategies for organising how games can change and how we help others feel welcome.

Looks Like

- Students cooperating and helping others join-in
- Waiting patiently
- Being orderly

Sounds Like

- People agreeing and talking positively
- Negotiating and listening to one another

Feels Like

- Being listened to
- Feeling like you a part of the group
